INTERNAL AFFAIRS BUREAU
INVESTIGATIVE SUMMARY
DEPUTY-INVOLVED, HIT SHOOTING
IAB# SH2330194

URN: 013-02277-2871-055

DATE / TIME: Tuesday, February 19, 2013, 2026 hours

LOCATION: [redacted]S. Lorella Avenue, Gardena, CA. 90248

SUSPECT: Mark Anthony Pascascio, MB/39, DOB: 11/29/75, BKG#3469831. "83rd Street" Crip Gang member, monikers: Boo Boo, Baby Boo, Lil' Boo, Boo, Crip GM and Chaos.

INVOLVED PERSONNEL: Deputy Andrew Leos, #[redacted] Unit 287D, PM's

Internal Affairs Bureau Lieutenant John McBride and Sergeant Dinah Grote responded to the Command Post located at San Pedro and 157th Streets, in the unincorporated County area of Gardena, where a deputy-involved, hit shooting had occurred.

Upon our arrival, we learned that Compton Station Deputies Andrew Leos and Ryan Clarke responded to a domestic violence-now call for service. Upon their arrival, the call was updated and stated the suspect left the residence armed with a handgun. Deputy Leos confronted the suspect and ordered him to drop his handgun, but the suspect did not comply and drew his handgun. Deputy Leos fired two rounds at the suspect, striking him. The suspect turned and fled back into the residence. The residence was contained and the suspect exited the garage in a vehicle and fled the area, escaping arrest.

Homicide Detectives Karen Shonka and Wayne Holston responded and handled the crime scene. Attorney Bita Shasty of the Office of Independent Review was also notified and responded.

Lieutenant John McBride checked to see that Watch Commander, Lieutenant Faye Adragna, took reasonable steps to ensure that the involved and witness personnel did not discuss the incident among themselves or with uninvolved persons prior to being interviewed by the assigned investigators, and that the involved and witness personnel did not collectively consult with their attorney or representative.

In addition, Lieutenant McBride checked to see if the watch commander attempted to have involved and witness personnel gather in the company of a supervisor until they have provided a statement to the assigned investigators. The same information was passed on by Lieutenant McBride to Compton Station Sergeant Mark Stone, who was at Compton Station with Deputy Leos.

SYNOPSIS:

On February 19, 2013, at approximately 2024 hours, Compton Station desk personnel received a 9-1-1 domestic violence-now call for service from a male (Non-Employee Witness [redacted] who stated his neighbor was being assaulted by her "man" in the front of the [redacted] in the unincorporated County area of Gardena.

Compton Sheriff's Station, Unit 287D, Deputies Andrew Leos and Ryan Clarke responded with lights and siren to the location. Upon arriving at the intersection of Lorella Avenue and Darlan Street, near the residence, Deputies Leos and Clarke parked their vehicle at the west curb line of Lorella Avenue, south of Darlan Street and waited for a secondary unit to arrive.

Deputies Leos and Clarke exited the patrol car and took cover at a house (location), along the east wall, on the southwest corner of Darlan and Lorella Avenue. Deputy Leos looked westbound from the north side of the house and heard a male and female arguing west of his location.

A radio update indicated the male was armed with a handgun, so Deputy Leos told Deputy Clarke to get the shotgun from the patrol car and armed himself with his handgun. As Deputy Clarke was at the driver's door of the patrol car getting the shotgun, Deputy Leos could hear the male's voice becoming louder and getting closer to him/them.

Looking westbound, Deputy Leos utilized the glass windows of several parked vehicles and saw a figure walking eastbound on the south sidewalk of Darlan Street. The male's voice (Suspect Mark Pascascio) was loud and coming toward them.

Suspect Mark Pascascio, wearing shorts and shirtless, walked southeast from the sidewalk onto the location's grass yard. Deputy Leos stepped away from the east wall, pointed his handgun at the suspect and ordered him to drop his weapon.

Suspect Pascascio immediately turned away from Deputy Leos and started to run toward the sidewalk. As the suspect did this, he reached down toward his waist or right pocket area with his right hand and armed himself with a dark-colored, semiautomatic handgun. He then turned his upper torso to his left, toward Deputy Leos, and raised his right arm/hand upward form his waist area.

Fearing the armed suspect was going to shoot him or Deputy Clarke, Deputy Leos fired two rounds at the suspect from a distance of 15 to 20 feet and his backdrop were houses located on the northwest side of Darlan Street. The suspect then ran westbound on the south sidewalk on Darlan Street, back into the location of the domestic violence call for service.

Deputies Leos and Clarke advised the Sheriff's Communications Center of the shooting and directed responding units to containment positions as they ran westbound on the south sidewalk, then northwest to the north sidewalk where they maintained a visual of the suspect's location.

Suspect Pascascio refused to surrender to deputies and the Special Enforcement Bureau (SEB) was requested for a barricaded suspect situation.

Approximately 30 to 40 minutes later, the overhead garage door opened and Suspect Pascascio fled the residence in a 2001, BMW, Model X5, SUV. A Sheriff's Aero Unit observed the suspect vehicle on Redondo Beach Boulevard near the 110 Freeway, but lost sight of the vehicle due to inclement weather conditions.

Blood evidence at the residence and statements from Non-Employee Witness, [redacted] confirmed Suspect Pascascio had been struck on the right arm by Deputy Leos' gunfire and was in possession of a 9mm handgun.

Two expended 9mm Luger shell casings were recovered from the southwest corner of Darlan Street and Lorella Avenue.

There were no injuries to any deputy personnel during this incident.

On February 21, 2013, a loaded and bloodied 9mm Luger caliber, Springfield Armory, Model XD, semi-automatic handgun with 15 live rounds in the magazine was located at the residence, hidden in an exterior crawl space under the house.

On February 24, 2013, Suspect Pascascio was located and arrested. He was transported to the Los Angeles County Medical center for treatment of a gunshot wound to his right, inner arm. He was treated and given an "okay" to book and was booked at the Men's Central Jail.

Suspect Pascascio is a known "83rd Street Gangster Crip" gang member and is currently on [redacted]

On June 7, 2013, the preliminary hearing for Suspect Pascascio was conducted. He was held to answer on attempt murder of a peace officer, domestic assault, grand theft vehicle and a weapons enhancement charge. For further, refer to a copy of the Felony Complaint, presented as Exhibit I, of this case book.

For further, refer to the complete Homicide case book, presented as Exhibit A, of this case book.

On August 14, 2013, Deputy District Attorney Jason Lustig from the Justice System Integrity Division of the Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office concluded that Deputy Leos [redacted] acted in self-defense and defense of others. For further, refer to the complete Homicide case book (Exhibit A) and a copy of the Los Angeles County Attorney's Office memorandum, presented in Exhibit A, pages 293 thru 296. Also, refer to the audiotaped call for service, photographs of the crime scene, the suspect and the recovered handgun, presented as Exhibits B, C, D and E, of the case book.

Suspect Pascascio's next court date is scheduled for July 28, 2014.

PHYSICAL EVIDENCE:
Located on the south pedestrian sidewalk and grass median of Darlan Street, west of Lorella Avenue, were two expended 9mm Luger caliber, white metal, "WIN" cartridge casings. Located on the west sidewalk of Lorella Avenue, approximately 197 feet south of Darlan Street, was one expended 9mm Luger caliber, brass metal, "WIN," cartridge casing (listed as Evidence 3 in the Homicide case book).

> IAB NOTE: Per Homicide Detective Karen Shonka, Detective Martin Rodriguez #[redacted] collected Evidence 3. It was determined that the expended cartridge casing was not involved in the shooting due to it showed signs of rust.

Within the residence at [redacted] blood samples were collected as well as bloodied clothing/towel, which was either worn or used by the suspect after being shot. Also, there were many areas within the residence, garage and exterior that were soiled by blood.

Homicide investigators located a handgun in a crawl space with a bent screen on the exterior wall of the residence, under the residence. The black handgun, 9mm caliber, "Springfield Armory," appeared to be saturated with human blood that was caked and flaky. The handgun was loaded with one round in the chamber and 15 live rounds in the magazine. For the complete summary of the collected evidence, refer to the Homicide case book, Exhibit A, pages 65 thru 72.

The evidence was documented, gathered and photographed by Forensic Identification Specialist's (FIS) Terri Beatty, Sheryl Anderson and Martin Mutuc. Refer to their supplemental reports, crime scene sketches and evidence list, presented in Exhibit A, pages 97 thru 112 and 114 thru 116. Also, refer to the CD containing crime scene photographs, presented as Exhibit D, of this case book.

INVESTIGATORS' OBSERVATIONS:

The shooting location, [redacted] Lorella Avenue, is a single-family dwelling located on the [redacted] Lorella Avenue [redacted] The front door to the residence is located on Lorella Avenue and the [redacted] The domestic violence call was at [redacted] of Lorella Avenue on the [redacted] side of the street. West of [redacted] is a cul-de-sac with no outlet. Darlan Street consisted of single-family residences and it is a "T" intersection with Lorella Avenue.

Lorella Avenue is a north-south roadway that turns in a westerly direction and has a cul-de-sac west of [redacted] The surrounding area also consisted of multiple single-family residences. A parked black and white patrol vehicle was parked facing north bound on the west side of Lorella Avenue, approximately 30 feet south of the southwest corners of Lorella Avenue and Darlan Street.

South on Lorella Avenue from Darlan Street is 157th Street, which is an east-west roadway and also has single-family residences on the north side of 157th Street. On 157th Street, [redacted] houses [redacted] of Lorella Avenue, is [redacted] which is a residence located directly [redacted] the location for the domestic violence call.

There were several parked vehicles on both the north and south sides of Darlan Street. The domestic violence locations' [redacted] garage door was in the open position and the front porch light was illuminated. For the complete description of the scene, refer to the Homicide case book, presented as Exhibit A, pages 65 thru 70.

WEAPON USED BY DEPUTY PERSONNEL:
Deputy Leos fired from his Department-issued 9mm Luger caliber, Smith & Wesson, Model M & P, semi-automatic handgun, serial #DSU6309, with "WIN" 9mm Luger brand ammunition.

Deputy Leos carried his weapon with 17 rounds in the magazine and one in the chamber. During this incident, he fired two rounds at the suspect, one struck the suspect. Following the shooting, Deputy Leos' handgun was recovered by Homicide detectives. Deputy Leos had 16 total rounds.

> IAB NOTE: Deputy Leos' second round could not be located as there was no evidence of damage to any vehicles or residences.

The handgun and ammunition were submitted to the Crime Lab, Firearms Examiner Manuel Muñoz under receipt numbers K307340 and K222797. Firearms Muñoz later test-fired the firearm and found it to be functional and within department standards. For further, refer to his supplemental reports and the lab receipts, presented in Exhibit A, pages 112, 113 and 120.

Previous to this shooting, Deputy Leos last qualified with his firearm on [redacted] For further, refer to his Weapons, Shooting, and Training Records, presented as Exhibit G.

WEAPON USED BY THE SUSPECT:
Suspect Mark Pascascio armed himself with a 9mm Luger caliber, Springfield Armory, Model XD, semi-automatic handgun, serial #[redacted] with 16 live 9mm Luger caliber rounds.

The handgun and ammunition were later recovered and submitted to the Crime Lab, Firearms Examiner Manuel Muñoz, under receipt numbers K491670 and K307345. Firearms Muñoz later examined, test-fired, and determined to be functional. The handgun was also blood-stained and tested for DNA. For further, refer to the firearms reports, lab receipts, and his supplemental reports and lab receipts, presented in Exhibit A, pages 109 thru 116, 120 and 121.

> IAB NOTE: After the above handgun was recovered, one round was chambered with 15 rounds in the magazine. It was later test-fired and determined to be functional. For further, refer to the Crime Lab Reports in the Homicide case book, presented as Exhibit A, pages 109 thru 112.

PROPERTY DAMAGE:

There was no property damage caused by deputy personnel during this incident. Suspect Pascascio bloodied a lot of items, such as a robe, towels, inside the sinks, and on the walls and floors at the residence. It is unknown if he destroyed anything.

> IAB NOTE: Deputy Leos' second round could not be located as there was no evidence of damage to any vehicles or residences.

Court:	Compton Superior Court
Charges Filed:	664/187, 243(e)(1), 12022.53 and 2800.2(a) P.C. and 10851 V.C.
DA Case Number:	TA127118

On February 25, 2013, Homicide Detective Karen Shonka submitted the complaint, which was filed by Deputy District Attorneys Kristin Trutanich and Emily Spear.

On June 7, 2013, the preliminary hearing for Suspect Pascascio was conducted. He was held to answer on the above charges, excluding 2800.2 P.C. (felony evasion). For further, refer to the criminal complaint filings located in the Homicide case book, Exhibit I, in this case book.

Suspect Pascascio's next court date is scheduled for July 28, 2014.

> IAB NOTE: On June 30, 2014 and per Homicide Detective Karen Shonka, Suspect Pascascio was offered 12 years in State Prison with a condition not to sue the Department or deputies, which he declined, pending a jury trial.

LIGHTING AND WEATHER CONDITIONS:

It was a cold, dark and cloudy evening. There was an overhead street light post on the west side of Lorella Avenue, just south of Darlan Street. On the west side of Lorella Avenue, north of Darlan Street, there was an overhead street light post. On the north side of Darlan Street, west of Lorella Avenue, there was another overhead light post and another one on the [redacted] side [redacted] (Witness [redacted] residence). For further, refer to the Crime Lab sketch, presented in Exhibit A, page 100.

INVOLVED EMPLOYEE STATEMENT:

On February 20, 2013, at approximately 0543 hours, Homicide Detectives Karen Shonka and Wayne Holston interviewed Deputy Andrew Leos at Compton Sheriff's Station. Deputy Leos was represented by Attorney David Dixon from the Law Offices of Green & Shinee. For Deputy Leos' summarized statements, refer to the Homicide case book, presented in Exhibit A, pages 85 thru 88*. For Deputy Leos' complete statements, refer to the digitally audio recorded interview located in IAB's audio files, and/or the verbatim transcripts listed under the* Transcribed Homicide Interview-Involved Employee*, section of the casebook.*

On June 30, 2014, at approximately 1010 hours, Deputy Andrew Leos was interviewed by IAB Sergeant Dinah Grote at the Internal Affairs office. Deputy Leos was represented by Attorney Dale Nowicki from Green & Shinee. Below is a summary of the interview. Precise wording may be obtained by reviewing the digitally audio recorded interview located in IAB's audio files, and/or the verbatim transcripts listed under the Transcribed IAB Interview-Involved Employee*, section of the casebook.*

Deputy Andrew Leos stated he is a [redacted] Deputy Ryan Clarke at the time of the shooting. Deputy Ryan Clarke had been in the [redacted] with Deputy Leos for approximately [redacted] Deputy Leos was the driver and Deputy Clarke was the book-person in a two-person patrol unit.

Deputy Leos received a domestic violence-now call for service to a residence and they responded with lights and sirens. He said the call for service was located at [redacted] of Lorella Avenue, on the [redacted] side of the street.

Using his patrol vehicle's GPS (Global Positioning System), he drove northbound on Lorella Avenue from 157th Street and parked the patrol vehicle faced northbound on the west side curb of Lorella Avenue, south of Darlan Street.

Deputy Leos said he stopped the patrol vehicle adjacent to the west curb line of Lorella Avenue, south of Darlan Street to await a secondary unit. As Deputy Leos stopped his patrol vehicle car, he heard a radioed update to the call stating the suspect was outside the residence ([redacted], armed with a handgun.

Deputy Leos exited the patrol car and ran to the house located on the [redacted] corner of [redacted] and Lorella Avenue (shooting location). There, he took a cover position at the northeast corner of the house and heard an unintelligible argument between a female and male coming from the west side of his location in the housing tract.

As Deputy Clarke followed Leos' path to the house, Deputy Leos told Deputy Clarke to return to the patrol vehicle to get the shotgun. Deputy Clarke went back to the patrol vehicle and entered the vehicle via the driver's side door, which was approximately 10 feet east of and adjacent to their position at the house (location).

Deputy Leos looked westbound around the corner of the house and realized the male's voice was getting louder and coming closer toward his area (eastbound). Deputy Leos looked through a parked van's window that was parked in the locations' driveway on the south side of Darlan Street and saw a figure of a head as the unknown person walked eastbound along the south sidewalk toward his area.

Deputy Leos turned toward Deputy Clarke, who was still at the driver's side door, and warned him that someone was coming toward them. Deputy Leos returned to the east wall and looked at the figure and saw a male walk eastbound around the front of the parked van. The male then walked in a southeast direction from the sidewalk across the location's north yard in the direction of the deputies.

Deputy Leos feared the male was the suspect in the call who was armed with a handgun. He also feared the suspect would see the parked patrol vehicle and Deputy Clarke. Armed with his handgun, Deputy Leos stepped out from around the wall into the suspect's line of fire between the suspect and Deputy Clarke. He then ordered Suspect Pascascio to drop his weapon.

In a quick scan of the suspect, Deputy Leos saw the suspect was shirtless, wearing nylon or mesh-type basketball shorts. He did not see the suspect armed with a gun or in his (suspect's) waistband. The suspect then turned back toward the van, in a northwest direction, and started to run back to the front of the van onto the sidewalk.

> IAB NOTE: Deputy Leos did not recall if the suspect turned to his right or left when he turned away to run.

As Suspect Pascascio turned and began to run, simultaneously, his right arm went down toward his waist or right pocket area. Deputy Leos then saw that Suspect Pascascio armed himself with a handgun. As the suspect drew the dark colored handgun upward from his waist area with his elbow pulled backward, his torso turned to his left side toward Deputy Leos and Deputy Clarke, who was last seen by Deputy Leos at the driver's door of the patrol vehicle. Deputy Leos later assumed the suspect pulled the weapon out of his front right pocket.

In fear that Suspect Pascascio was going to shoot him or Deputy Clarke and at a distance of 15 to 20 feet, Deputy Leos fired two consecutive two rounds at the suspect as the suspect neared the parked van. Deputy Leos said after he fired the first round, he quickly readjusted his sights and fired a second round with an approximate one second interval between both trigger pulls. He believed he struck Suspect Pascascio with his second shot as the suspect continued to run westbound on the south sidewalk of Darlan Street.

Deputy Leos then advised the Sheriff's Communication Center (SCC) of his shooting. He said SCC did not acknowledge his emergent radio transmissions and believed he was "stepped on" by other radio users.

At this point, Deputy Clarke was at his side. Again, Deputy Leos advised SCC of his shooting, which was acknowledged. He and Deputy Clarke ran westbound on the south sidewalk of Darlan Street to contain the suspect. They then ran in a northwest direction across the street taking cover behind a parked vehicle at the north curb line while Suspect Pascascio ran southbound onto the property of [redacted]

Deputy Leos coordinated with the assisting units and Aero Bureau to an attempt to contain the suspect. Approximately 15 minutes later, Witness [redacted] and her son exited the front door at [redacted]

Suspect Pascascio then opened the garage door and exited the garage in Witness [redacted] BMW vehicle and successfully fled the area.
Deputy Leos stated his shooting backdrop were the residences on the north side of Darlan Street. For further, refer to Deputy Leos' sketch, his Training, Weapons and Shooting Records, presented as Exhibits F and G, of the case book.

> IAB NOTE: In Deputy Leos' IAB interview, he stated that he did not tell Homicide Detectives that Suspect Pascascio raised his right hand. He reiterated and again demonstrated the suspect's actions by simulating a right hand holding a handgun pulling upward from the waistband area or right pocket with the arm and elbow coming backward. For further, refer to his summarized statements by Homicide, in Exhibit A, page 87, or his verbatim transcripts from his Homicide Interview under the Transcribed Homicide Interview-Involved Employee, section of this casebook.

EMPLOYEE WITNESS STATEMENT:

On February 20, 2013, at approximately 0505 hours, Homicide Detectives Karen Shonka and Wayne Holston interviewed Deputy Ryan Clarke at Compton Sheriff's Station. Deputy Clarke was represented by Attorney David Dixon from the Law Offices of Green & Shinee. For Deputy Clarke's summarized statements, refer to the Homicide case book, presented in Exhibit A, pages 82 thru 84. For Deputy Clarke's complete statements, refer to the digitally audio recorded interview located in IAB's audio files, and/or the verbatim transcripts listed under the Transcribed Homicide Interview-Employee Witness*, section of the casebook.*

On June 30, 2014, at approximately 1138 hours, Deputy Ryan Clarke was interviewed by IAB Sergeant Dinah Grote at the Internal Affairs office. Deputy Clarke was represented by Attorney Dale Nowicki from Green & Shinee. Below is a summary of the interview. Precise wording may be obtained by reviewing the digitally audio recorded interview located in IAB's audio files, and/or the verbatim transcripts listed under the Transcribed IAB Interview-Employee Witness*, section of the casebook.*

Deputy Ryan Clarke stated that at the time of the shooting incident, he had been in the [redacted] was Deputy Leos. He was the book-person and Leos was the driver.

Deputy Clarke said they received a domestic violence-now call for service and they responded to the area of Lorella Avenue and Darlan Street. Deputy Leos parked the patrol vehicle on the west side curb of Lorella Avenue, approximately 20 feet south of Darlan Street, to await the arrival of an assisting unit. The domestic violence call was at a residence on [redacted] with the disturbing parties fighting in front of their house. Deputy Clarke said their plan was to exit the vehicle in order to get a visual of the residence without being seen while waiting for an assisting unit.

Deputy Leos exited the patrol vehicle and used the northeast corner residence (location) as cover as he looked westbound around the northeast corner of the house. Deputy Clarke stood behind (south) Deputy Leos when a radio update stated the suspect was carrying a gun.

Deputy Leos instructed Deputy Clarke to go back to their patrol car to get the shotgun, so Deputy Clarke went back to the patrol car, approximately 15-20 feet from the house. He unlocked the driver's side door and entered the car. Not having a shotgun key, Deputy Clarke had to put his key in the ignition, place the vehicle into gear, take it out of gear, then press the unlock button in order to release the shotgun from the holder. He then loaded the rounds and racked a round.

As Deputy Clarke made his way through the yard toward the house and Deputy Leos, he heard a "commotion." He said he could not describe the commotion possibly because of the sound barrier from the house. He then heard Deputy Leos say, "Let me see your hands." A few seconds later, he heard two consecutive gunshots then saw the expended cartridge casings coming from Deputy Leos' handgun as it was pointed in a northwest direction toward the parked van.

Deputy Clarke arrived at the east side of the house and stood approximately five feet behind (south) Deputy Leos. Deputy Clarke and Deputy Leos attempted to put out emergent radio transmissions. However, they were either stepped on by each other or by someone from another station because their emergent transmissions were not acknowledged by SCC. Deputy Clarke then told Deputy Leos he would do the transmissions.

As Deputy Clarke started to transmit on the radio, Deputy Leos ran westbound and then northbound into the street, taking cover behind a parked vehicle at the curb line. He did not recall if he and Deputy Leos actually took cover behind the parked cars on the south curb or if they took cover behind parked cars on the north side of the curb line, but recalled being behind a parked Suburban, which was parked on the south side of Darlan Street, in front of the suspect's location.

Deputy Leos then began to coordinate assisting units for an area containment of the residence [redacted] and suspect. Deputy Clarke did not see the suspect run westbound on the sidewalk into the residence due to his view was obstructed by parked vehicles and he was behind Deputy Leos. He said the suspect eventually made his escape out of the containment via a car that was at the house. For further, refer to Deputy Clarke's sketch of the scene, presented as Exhibit H, of the case book.

We responded to Lorella Ave and Darlan St. in unincorporated Gardena regarding an emergency request (via hand held radio) by Unit 287D (V1/Deputy A. Leos # [redacted] and W1/Deputy R. Clarke # [redacted] stating that they had been involved in a shooting.

We contacted Deputy Leos and he told us the following:

He and his partner (Deputy Clarke) responded to the location regarding a domestic violence/person with a gun call (Tag 195). The call stated that the disturbing party (later identified as S/Pascascio, Mark) was seen assaulting a female black adult at the location. The informant stated that he observed a firearm in S/Pascascio's right front shorts pocket. The suspect was seen without a shirt, walking in and out of the house.

Deputies Leos and Clarke (287D) was the first unit to respond, and they parked their vehicle on Lorella Av (west side-walk) just south of Darlan St. Deputy Leos exited the patrol car and walked over to the east facing wall of the residence ([redacted] corner of [redacted]). Once Deputy Leos began walking toward the indicated residence, he heard what he believed to be a person walking toward him. Deputy Leos moved away from the east facing wall and began walking north toward Darlan St (near the residence's north facing wall). Deputy Leos immediately saw a male black adult (S/Pascascio) without a shirt, and he was seen wearing black basketball shorts and tennis shoes. Deputy Leos clearly saw the exposed grip of a hand gun coming from the right side of S/Pascascio's shorts (unknown if extending from waistband or right front pocket).

Once the suspect saw Deputy Leos, he turned around and ran westbound on Darlan St, away from Lorella Av. Moments later, the suspect stopped running and began to face Deputy Leos. Subsequent to S/Pascasio's actions, a deputy involved shooting occurred. Deputy Leos then observed the suspect run back to the address indicated in the call ([redacted]. Deputy Leos broadcasted the last seen location of the suspect and responding deputies contained the target location and the surrounding area.

After the suspect entered the location, a female black adult exited the residence and made contact with Deputy Leos. She identified herself as the suspect's [redacted] and gave Deputy Leos the suspect's name and date of birth. For further on the female black adults name, the suspects actions toward the female black adult, and information on the additional occupants inside the residence, see our supplemental report.

After several minutes, the garage door opened of [redacted] At this moment, a 2001 gray BMW X-5 SUV 4-door (CA # [redacted] was seen exiting the garage. Deputy Leos positively identified the driver of the vehicle as S/Pascascio. The vehicle fled the location, and was last seen on the 110 freeway northbound from Redondo Beach Blvd. The vehicle was entered into the Stolen Vehicle System (SVS) as a stolen vehicle/felony armed and dangerous by Unit 282E (Deputy A. Franco # [redacted].

We directed several units to escort nearby residents, and the occupants of [redacted] to Compton Station for further interview by responding Homicide Detectives. For further on the witness transport and their statements refer to the attached supplemental reports.

We directed Unit 285E (Deputies P. Carmona # [redacted] and Krase # [redacted] to initiate a Major Incident Log (see attached) and to canvas Darlan St for any witnesses. For further see their supplemental report.

We directed Unit 282K1 (Deputy D. Richards #[redacted] to also canvas Lorella Ave and Darlan St for any witnesses. For further see his supplemental report.

LASD Special Enforcement Bureau (SEB) responded to [redacted] and conducted a protective sweep and safely cleared the residence. LASD Homicide and Crime Lab were notified. Homicide Detectives Holston #[redacted] and Shonka #[redacted] responded to the location and were briefed on the incident. Crime Lab Technician C. Anderson #[redacted] responded to the location and took responsibility of the scene and the evidence.

Sheriffs Communication Center (SCC) initiated an officer safety broadcast regarding the outstanding suspect vehicle and the preceding assault with a deadly weapon (firearm) on a police officer.

For further information regarding this incident see our supplemental report.
